Teletherapy Informed Consent Form

I _____ (client) hereby consent to engage in teletherapy services with Gila Calev, LCSW. I understand that teletherapy includes consultation, treatment, transfer of medical data, emails, telephone conversations and education using interactive audio, video, or data communications. I understand that online teletherapy also involves the communication of my medical/mental information, both orally and visually.

I understand that I have the following rights with respect to teletherapy:

1. I have the right to withhold or withdraw consent at any time without affecting my right to future care or treatment.
2. The laws that protect the confidentiality of my medical information also apply to teletherapy. As such, I understand that the information disclosed by me during the course of my therapy or consultation is confidential. However, there are both mandatory and permissive exceptions to confidentiality, which are discussed in detail in the Notice of Privacy Practices form.
3. I understand that there are risks and consequences from teletherapy, including, but not limited to, the possibility, despite reasonable efforts on the part of Gila Calev, LCSW, that: the transmission of my information could be disrupted or distorted by technical failures.
4. In addition, I understand that online teletherapy based services and care may not be as complete as face-to-face services. Finally, I understand that there are potential risks and benefits associated with any form of psychotherapy, and that despite my efforts and the efforts of my counselor, my condition may not be improve, and in some cases may even get worse.
5. I understand that I may benefit from teletherapy, but that results cannot be guaranteed or assured.
6. I accept that teletherapy does not provide emergency services. If I am experiencing an emergency situation, I understand that I can call 911; or proceed to the nearest hospital emergency room for help; or call my primary care physician or psychiatrist. If I am having suicidal thoughts or making plans
